Dr. Fuad Asaad directs the tasting teams at the International Union of Arab Master Chefs. He helped establish the tasting team in Saudi Arabia, as documented by the Union’s magazine based on the President’s account.

The Union has documented his leadership and training of the tasting team and his service on the judging panel of the Saudi Culinary Challenge. He holds a Professional Master in Sensory and Restaurant Evaluation and is a Category A judge accredited by International Culinary & Gastronomy Arbitration.

He completed the Professional Doctorate programmes in Tasting and Culinary Arbitration. His professional research explored circular tasting as a way to describe the sensory properties of dishes and explain evaluation decisions.
